SOUTH YARRA PENTHOUSE WINE WALL

Penthouse owner and wine connoisseur Alastair Craig converted a blank wall in his South Yarra penthouse to a 650-bottle wine wall.

There was an alcove in dining area of the apartment where Alastair would like to see his wine storage, this is what he told us;

The wine unit had to be a seamless addition to the adjoining kitchen cabinetry & entrance surround.

"It was just a blank wall with a big piece of art on it and I thought to myself, 'Well that's a perfect spot,' ... Given that I don't have a lot of art, I thought I would display my wine there and it certainly does turn heads because it looks fantastic."

Vine & Vault

- Designed a space maximising storage whilst remaining aesthetically stunning
- Penetrated the wall to access storage room behind to house cellar conditioning unit
- Manufactured the components of the cellar to fit the limited access/lift space in reaching the apartment
- Realised Alastair's vision
